

Message from the CEO, Megan Pitt

Welcome to our September newsletter and Farewell

As many of you will be aware, my five year term of appointment as CEO of the Legal Services Council and Commissioner for Uniform Legal Services Regulation ends on 2 October 2022, and as I have decided to retire, this will be my last newsletter.

Over the last five years, the Uniform Law scheme has developed significantly and we should all be proud of these achievements. All of you and your organisations, have played a major part in this success.

Importantly, on 1 July this year, we celebrated the scheme's expansion to include WA, resulting in 75% of all Australian legal practitioners being covered by the Uniform Law (UL).

Having WA join the scheme and getting to know our WA colleagues has been a highlight for me – as has been the opportunity to get to know all our UL partners better and make some valuable friendships along the way.

For my first three years, it was a delight to work with the inaugural Chair of the Council, the Hon Michael Black AC KC; the first Council members, and our first WA observer, the Chief Justice of WA, the Hon Peter Quinlan SC; when he was the WA Solicitor General. I was fortunate to follow the inaugural CEO/Commissioner Dale Boucher, who laid the solid foundations of the scheme, together with the Council.

During the last two years, it has been a pleasure to work with the current Chair of the Council, Alan Cameron AO; all members of the Council and our WA observer, Joshua Thomson SC the WA Solicitor General; the Chair of the Admissions Committee, the Hon Arthur Emmett AO KC and Committee members; and the Audit and Risk Committee, chaired by Geoffrey Applebee.

I want to pay special tribute to the representatives of our Designated Local Regulatory Authorities in NSW, Victoria and WA. Without exception, their professionalism, expertise and commitment to performing their work to the highest standards, to enhance legal regulation and to ensure consumer protection, has been impressive.

I also want to recognise our many other stakeholders, professional associations and representatives of the Departments of Justice in NSW and Victoria, and the State Solicitor's Office in WA for their respective contributions to the work of the Council and the UL scheme.

I have been well supported by our small but talented secretariat – Chelly Milliken, who expertly leads our skilled policy team of Ella Howard and Jessica Wardle; my terrific EA Tina O'Brien and former secretariat members - Bridget Sordo, Cora Groenewegen, Sonya Kim, Julia Langham and Maureen Shaw.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank the Standing Committee of Attorneys General for its support of me and the Council.

Finally, thank you all so much for sharing the last five years with me and for leaving me with some special memories. I will continue to watch the progress of the Uniform Law scheme with interest, and I am certain that it will continue its positive trajectory.

All the very best to all of you for the future.

Megan
