

TRAIN THE TRAINER PROGRAM 29 JULY - 9 AUGUST 2024

What is the Train the Trainer Program

The Victorian Bar, through its International Advocacy Training Committee (IATC), has partnered with the Papua New Guinea Centre for Judicial Excellence and the Pacific Justice Sector Programme to deliver a Train the Trainer Program. The program is designed to build capacity within the legal profession of Pacific Nations in the field of advocacy training for court appearances.

Who is undertaking the Program?

Twenty delegates from Papua New Guinea, Vanuatu, Tonga, Solomon Islands and Fiji will be in Melbourne from 29 July to 9 August 2024 for an intensive advocacy training program combined with observations of court advocacy in Victoria and a shadowing and mentoring program with Victorian barristers.

IATC Members

Peter O'Farrell SC - Chair, Albert Dinelli KC - Deputy Chair, Carrie Rome-Sievers, Elizabeth Brumby, James Doherty, Janine Gleeson, Maya Rozner, Michael Whitten KC, Remy van de Wiel KC - Ex-officio Member, Sarah Thomas, Sophie Molyneux, Susan Gatford, Thomas Ellicott, Ffyona Livingstone Clark - Bar Council Representative.

VicBar support: Michelle James - Education Manager and Vicky Kourtis - Education Coordinator.

How can you help/volunteer?

The Victorian Bar relies upon barristers to volunteer their time to deliver the Program.

You are invited to volunteer to assist with:

- Teaching in the Program
- Mentoring one of the delegates

All members of the Bar are also invited to register interest in attending a Dinner on Wednesday, 7 August 2024 (Essoign Club) at which trainers, delegates and members of the judiciary will be attending.
